The Aged.

Oh, pass ye by the aged
  With gentle step and slow;
They have the burden of years to bear,
  And the tide of their life is low.
Speak kindly as ye greet them,
  For their world is dim and cold,
And a beaming look from a youthful heart
  Is the sunlight of the old.

And commune with the aged;
  Ask them of days gone by;
Ye know not what a store they have
  Of hoarded memory;
Of hopes that like the rainbow shone,
  Only to fade in tears;
And love and sorrow change and death,
  Bind their long scroll of years.

And learn ye from the aged
  How with a tranquil eye
They look back on Life's stormy sea
  And all its vanity;
The hope deferred, the dark despair,
  The daily toil and strife,
They are buried all in the waves of time;
  Of the aged ask of life!

And pray ye for the aged,
  With tottering steps they stand
Upon the very borders
  Of the Everlasting Land.
Ask for them strength in weakness,
  And Faith's supporting rod;
And through Death's cold, dark water
  The strong right arm of God.

—Dorah Lynch, in the Argosy.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

"Why call ye Me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?"

Not forever on thy knees,
  Would Jehovah have thee found;
There are burdens thou canst ease;
There are griefs Jehovah sees;
  Look around.

Work is prayer if done for God,
  Prayer which God delighted hears.
See beside yon upturned sod
One bowed 'neath affliction's rod;
  Dry her tears.

Not long prayers, but earnest zeal;
  This is what is wanted more.
Put thy shoulder to the wheel;
Bread unto the famished deal
  From thy store.

Not high-sounding words of praise
  Does God want, 'neath some grand dome;
But that thou the fallen raise;
Bring the poor from life's highways
  To thy home.

Worship God by doing good;
  Works, not words; kind acts, not creeds.
He who loves God as he should,
Makes his heart's love understood
  By kind deeds.

Deeds are powerful; mere words weak
  Batt'ring at high heaven's door.
Let thy love by actions speak;
Wipe the tear from sorrow's cheek;
  Clothe the poor.

Be it thine life's cares to smother,
  And to brighten eyes now dim.
Kind deeds done to one another,
God accepts as done, my brother,
  Unto him.

ANNUAL MEETING.

THE Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting of the Contributors to the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons, was held at the Home, Sixth month, 13th, 1889, the President in the chair. In the absence of the Secretary from the city, Sarah M. Carver was requested to act in his stead. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Geo. M. Whitten.

The Annual Report was read and on motion accepted and referred to the incoming Board of Managers for publication. Rev. J. W. Becket then sang "The Beautiful Land."

The Treasurer's Report showed a very small balance in the treasury. On motion it was accepted and ordered to be printed with the Annual Report.

On motion the President appointed the following named contributors to bring forward the names of persons to serve as officers of the association for the ensuing year: Humphrys Garrigues, Henrietta S. Duterte, Lydia E. Pennock, Fanny M. Coppin and Sarah Bell, who submitted names which were agreed upon.—See page 3.

After remarks by the President, he introduced Rev. W. C. Cattell, Ex-President of Lafayette College, who made a very interesting address; saying in substance that it is the fundamental principle of humanity, that the strong should care for the weak. The essence of our religion is in the generous impulse that prompts us to share the fruits of our labor with others who are less fortunate;—quoting from divine authority. "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."—He referred with tender recollections to his boyhood, when in the midst of his collegiate pursuits, where it was by no means a popular enterprise, he gave his leisure hours to the training of a class of colored youths, whose quick perceptions and keen appreciations brought abundant reward. His address was followed by music by Prof. Adger and choir.

Frances E. W. Harper read an original poem prepared for the occasion. Mrs. Roberts, of Liberia, widow of President Roberts, addressed the meeting and made a strong appeal for aid in establishing a hospital in her own country.

A delegation from the New England Baptist Missionary Convention, now sitting in this city, being present, Rev. Rufus L. Perry and Rev. A. L. Young spoke interestingly.

Dr. T. G. Stewart, Fanny M. Coppin, Samuel Emlen, Francis W. Harper and others, were also among the speakers.

The meeting closed by the singing of the beautiful and touching hymn, "He knows," by Rev. J. W. Becket. The occasion assumed unusual interest and importance from the fact that it was the Twenty-fifth year of the founding of the "Home." Religious services were held at 10 A. M., and eloquent addresses were made by Bishop Campbell, Rev. J. W. Becket, B. F. Lloyd, J. F. Rex and S. M. Palmer.

A service of song, led by Rev. Becket, was a beautiful feature of the day's proceedings. In the evening an entertainment was given to the inmates by the Philharmonic Orchestra, supplemented by vocal music by the Haas' family, Mr. Dawn, Mrs. Thos. H. Boling, Rev. W. C. Mullen and others. Addresses were made by Margaret Roberts, Fannie Carr, John Collins and others. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon meeting. A bountiful dinner of chicken with a course of vegetables and dessert was furnished the family.

A feeling of sadness prevailed in many hearts as we missed the welcome presence and inspiring words of our late lamented friend Samuel P. Godwin, who was always present on these occasions and was ever a welcome visitor to the Home and its inmates. Adjourned.

SARAH M. CARVER,
Secretary pro tem.

* ANNUAL REPORT. *

THE Board of Managers of the "Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons," in presenting their Twenty-fifth Annual Report, feel that it is not unfitting on their silver anniversary to take a brief retrospect of the records of this institution from whose origin in a small, obscure, three story dwelling on Front street—purchased at a cost of $5,000 and accommodating twenty-five inmates, it has grown to its present proportions. From the first annual report issued First month, 12th, 1865, we quote the following:—"A little more than three months ago, a few individuals came together to consider the propriety of adding to the benevolent institutions of our city a 'Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons.' They were impressed with the fact that there are in this community a class of worthy and exemplary colored people, who through a long life, have maintained themselves by their own industry—but who, in their old age, from sickness or other infirmity, have become more or less dependent upon the charities of the benevolent. For a small pecuniary compensation, they have labored faithfully and contributed largely to the comfort of many wealthy families, and while their sacrifices and self-denying exertions entitle them to respect, it is felt to be a duty to provide for them a comfortable Home where they can be sheltered from destitution and poverty." For these reasons the Association was organized, and truly it may be said, the noble and generous hearted men and women who conceived and carried into exertion this charity "builded better than they knew," for to-day, after the lapse of a quarter of a century, and through labor, discouragement and difficulty we see this beautiful building standing as a monument to the Christian Philanthropy of our "City of Brotherly Love."

The next important movement in the interest of the Association, was the laying of the Corner Stone of the present Home, Tenth month, 13th, 1870, Stephen Smith's birth-day. A lot of ground was donated, as a site, by Stephen and Harriet Smith, the former of whom was once a slave and purchased his own freedom. They also furnished the money for the original building. On this occasion there was a large attendance of the friends of the Institution to participate in the proceedings, which were of an unusually interesting character. Among those who took a conspicuous part we find the names of Lucretia Mott, Dillwyn Parrish, George Truman, Hon. J. W. Forney and others, who, "now walk no more with men." It was a very unusual spectacle, the laying of the corner stone of such an institution and for such an object.

In the Summer of 1871 the Home was ready for occupancy, and was opened Eighth month, 7th, with appropriate ceremonies. The family of twenty-five aged people were, with much care and some difficulty, removed to it. A season of rejoicing and thanks-giving this proved to be, both by those giving and those receiving.

During the progress of the "Centennial Celebration" the Home and its inmates were an object of much interest to the many strangers in the city, and perhaps few Delegations that later visited the "International Exhibition" received more distinguished consideration than did the inmates of the Home. In response to an appeal for aid for the Home, the President and Board of Directors granted a "colored people's day" on First month, 1st, 1877, a proportion of the cash receipts of which were to be devoted to their object. We quote from a newspaper article that appeared at that time. Hon. Henry D. Moore, President of the company in a formal address of welcome, said, "it has been my pleasure to welcome guests to this building and its many attractions, but in no previous occasion have I extended a more hearty one than I do to you. If any one doubts for a moment that we are living in an age of advancement and progress, it must be expelled from his mind as he looks on this scene and contrasts it with a few years ago."

From time to time as the needs demanded, and the funds were forth-coming the building has been enlarged, and improvements have been made by the introduction of such appliances as would add to the comfort and convenience of the household. In the last year there has been erected in the Western limits of our lot, a new building of pressed brick, two stories in height, furnishing a very neat and commodious dwelling for the Engineer, while the basement serves the purpose of an engine-house. The entire main building has been supplied with steam heat which proved entirely satisfactory with the winter test.

Some improvements also, have been made in the house and grounds which add greatly to the comfort and sightliness of the premises.

At the close of our last year we had 118 inmates; since then have received 5 men, 14 women; died 4 men and 12 women and have at present in the Home a family 121; of whom 29 are men and 92 women. Many of them are very aged and feeble.

Since our last report several of our old people, who then stood patiently waiting upon the brink of the "unknown," have passed over, sustained by their unwavering faith in a blessed hereafter. Maria Gibbs, who for many long years, with her poor sightless eyes, groped through the darkness, shut out from the glory of each new born day, was at last overtaken by a most loathesome and painful disease which taxed her own patience, and that of her nurses to the utmost. The query often arose with her and all who saw her, what would have been her fate if she had not found the shelter and protection of this Home? Through these hot weary days she was always patient and thankful,—an example to many of those more favored.

Mary Robinson who died on the 1st of the Third month, was very aged—supposed to be one hundred years. She had been an inmate of the Home for fifteen years, and during all that time had been a general favorite, not only of her house-mates but of the Managers as well. She was never heard to complain or find fault, always manifesting a cheerful spirit in her daily life, and died in the full assurance of "the rest that remaineth."

The domestic management has met with our approval in all the important details. The Matron, as far as possible, aided by a well trained and well disciplined corps of assistants, has made the family comfortable. The qualifications to fill such a position, it will be readily understood, are rare and peculiar and success in the adminstration of such a trust is no mean achievement.

The holidays have all been appropriately observed. Christmas in particular, was a royal fete. Their dinner was by common consent, pronounced excellent, and George Roegner donated a generous supply of ice cream and cake for their refreshment in the evening.

Many kind friends contributed at various times and in various ways to the amusement and instruction of the family, and thus relieved the tedium of their lives. We cannot say too much in praise of the kindly spirit that prompted this, and in the name of their grateful auditors we extend heartfelt thanks. If space allowed we would cheerfully make especial mention of those who thus gave ungrudgingly of their time to this service.—See page 36.

Religious meetings have been regularly held on the Sabbath and during the week—These are always seasons of comfort and cheer, satisfying a craving peculiar to the race—unknown and unappreciated by a more favored people.

Thomas Whitson, a ministering Friend from West Grove, accompanied by John Thomas, had a meeting with the family, under a religious concern, which was highly appreciated and comforting alike to the visitor and visited.

On Donation Day many substantial reminders of the interest felt in this little community of aged and infirm ones found their way into the Home.

Legacies and special donations have been received from :—

HETTY HARVEY,	SARAH B. McCONKEY,
ELIZABETH W. EVANS,	EDWARD GREEN,
JNO. F. GILPIN,	ELIZABETH RICHARDS,

FANNY SWAN.

We most cheerfully extend thanks to our contributors and friends for their gifts of money and merchandise, and to all who have in any way brought gladness into the hearts of our numerous and dependant family. "It is more blessed to give than to receive," is a truth that comes down to us through the ages with all the purity and freshness of the Divine declaration, and, "As ye have done it unto one of the least of these, you have done it unto Me."

As we look backward over the twenty-five years of the history of the Home, and note the opening of the heart and hand that has made its marvelous growth thus far a possibility, we feel that we can reverently adopt the Scripture language,—"Not unto us, O, Lord, but unto Thy name give the glory."

By Order of the Board,

THOMAS H. BOLING,

Philadelphia, Fifth month 31st, 1889. Secretary pro tem.

To the President and Managers.

Esteemed Friends:

It is with much pleasure, that I present for your consideration my Annual Report with the desire that it may merit your approval.

When we think of those who have borne the heat and burden of the day for so many years, previous to entering the Home, (as many of our inmates have), and also considering how many of them have advanced to the age of four score years and ten, and comparatively speaking, are in the enjoyment of good health, we must certainly admit that a kind Providence has bestowed a blessing unto them.

The sanitary condition of the Home, has been, and is very satisfactory. The mortality of the house, although we have had a number of very serious cases, has been less than the previous year.

No contageous or infectious disease has visited the family. The types of disease have been those of pneumonia, dropsy, paralysis, peritonitis, inflammation of the bowels, gangrene, cancer, one accident, coughs, colds, etc. At present the family are in a comfortable condition.

The perfect order, the cleanliness, and purity of the house, which speakes for itself, is due to the untiring efforts of the Managers, and the faithfulness of our worthy Matron and House-keeper.

I have received as donations drugs, medicines, etc., per kindness of William Weightman, (Powers & Weightman), Rosengarten & Sons, John C. Baker & Co., Fellows & Co., N. Y.; Parke Davis & Co., Detroit, Michigan; All of which I have acknowledged.

Desiring that peace and happiness may abide in the family and that prosperity may continue, I remain,

Yours truly,

SAMUEL C. HENSZEY, M. D.

25th Anniversary of the "Old Folks' Home."

We come, but not to celebrate,
Amid the flight and whirl of years,
The deeds of heroes, on whose brows
Are laurels, drenched with blood and tears.

Nor yet to tell of wondrous deeds,
Performed on fields of bloodless strife;
But of the lovely, precious things,
That bless and beautify our life.

And from the annals of the poor,
We would unfold a shining page;
And tell of kindly hands that smoothed
The rugged path of faltering age.

To shelter those who long have borne
Life's chilling storms and searching heat,
In restful homes, with love alight,
What charity more pure and sweet?

But not beneath this spacious Home
Was laid the first foundation stone,
But in the hearts that learned to feel
For woman, stricken, old and lone.

To Hall and Truman, Still and Laing,
Was given power to aid and bless;
And, faithful to her sacred charge,
Constant and helping, stood Ann Jess.

May Sarah Pennock, whose kind hand
Has often brought the "Home" relief,
Feel life replete with God's great peace;
Find light in darkness, joy in grief.

Custodian of the generous purse,
May Israel Johnson long remain;—
And reach at last the happy land,
Where faithful service meets its gain.

And join again departed forms
Of wife and sister passed before;
Who gave their treasure to the Lord,
By generous gifts unto His poor.

And some who met with us erewhile,
Have passed unto the other side;—
Like precious fragrance, may their deeds
Within our heart of hearts abide.

Year after year, within these halls,
Did Dillwyn Parrish faithful stand;—
Till He "who gives his loved ones sleep"
Released, in death, his helpful hand.

Of those who scattered flowers fair
Around the verge of parting life,
We would record with grateful words,
The names of Stephen Smith and wife.

Whose hands, enriched with golden store,
Gave of their wealth to build this "Home,"
And changed a narrow domicile,
Into a grand and stately dome.—

Oh! when our earthly homes shall fail
And vanish from our fading sight,
May friends and patrons meet again
In God's fair halls of love and light.

Where homeless ones shall never weep,
Nor weary aged wanderers roam;—
But walk amid the golden streets,
Secure within our Father's home.

June 13, 1889.

—Mrs. F. C. W. Harper.

RULES.

RULE 1.

The Matron shall have the general charge of the Home, and keep it in neat order, under the direction of the Committee of Management. She is to enforce the rules, see that suitable nourishment is provided for the sick. She must be respectful and kind to every one in the Home, and attentive (without partiality) as their circumstances require. She will promptly check any quarreling or other improper conduct in the inmates, and, if necessary, report the same to the Visiting Committee. She shall keep a record of all clothing sent to the Home, and furnish the Committee with a monthly account thereof. She will be expected to go through the house about 10 o'clock P. M. and see that all unnecessary fires and lights are extinguished.

RULE 2.

No person shall be admitted to the Home but such as bring satisfactory testimonials of the propriety of their conduct and the respectability of their character.

RULE 3.

Those received in the Home must be at least 60 years of age, and shall pay to the Treasurer the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars. All who are admitted will be on probation for a period of six months. If their conduct during that time is not satisfactory, they will be retained no longer, but will be charged board for the time they may be residents in the Home, at the rate of two and a half dollars per week, which is to be deducted from the sum paid for admission, the balance of which is to be returned to the party paying the same.

RULE 4.

Any property or personal effects which an applicant may be possessed of must be made over for the benefit of the Home, prior to admission therein; and if any inherit property whilst in the Home, and prefer remaining, the said property must likewise be transferred to the Managers for the use of the institution; all such transfers being recorded in a book kept for that purpose.

RULE 5.

Colored persons, over the age of sixty, of respectable character, and furnishing satisfactory references, may be boarded in the Institution upon such terms as the Managers may decide; but shall be subjected to the same rules, and have no privileges different from other inmates. Satisfactory security must be given for the regular payment of the board, previous to their admission.

RULE 6.

No boarder shall be received or continued in the Home to the exclusion of those entirely dependent. Two weeks notice, however must be given for the removal of any boarder.

RULE 7.

A register shall be kept of the names of all applicants, the persons by whom they are recommended, their place of residence and the report of the Committee on Admissions thereon, and any information they may deem important.

RULE 8.

Those who are pensioners on any benevolent institution or society, it is expected, will have their pensions continued to assist in their support, and at their death, the funeral expenses shall be paid by said societies.

RULE 9.

None but the Physician of the Institution, or his substitute, shall attend the inmates, unless he should request a consultation with another practitioner. If any of the inmates or their friends desire other than the regular Physician of the Home, they may, with the consent of the attending Physician, be at liberty to employ such; providing the same shall be without expense or any responsibility on the part of the Institution.

RULE 10.

After rising in the morning, and again before retiring at night, all who are able shall be assembled in a suitable room, and a chapter from the Bible read to them, after which an opportunity shall be afforded for silent or vocal worship.

RULE 11.

Religious Meetings shall be held in the Home on the First-day of the week, for those not desirous of attending elsewhere.

RULE 12.

Any of the inmates desirous of visiting their friends (on their written invitation), must obtain permission from the Matron.

RULE 13.

No stimulants or liquors to be used in the Home, unless ordered by the Physician, and then to be administered by the Matron.

RULE 14.

All visitors shall be properly treated and shown through the Home, especially those visiting for religious purposes. Visitors will not be admitted before 10 A. M., nor after 5 P. M., except in special cases.
